Summer Dance Workshop 2011

18. year since 1994

Dear colleagues,

I am addressing you as partners of the project "SDW" - that will be put together from top representatives of European art – dance education. Members – selected representatives students of those academies will create a full-length evening programme together and will present it during the Summer Dance Workshop (August - September 2011) on the stage of Prague (and in other European countries according special production). We want to use the whole action for exchanging information about artistic education in Europe and want to help to promote the best results of work of each institution.

As we must plan the programme for the period of time from August 21 – September 4, 2011, I would like to sum up production conditions of the project:

1. Each participating conservatoire will select the best students of higher grades (maximum of 2 girl and 2 boy above the age of 16) and will send them to Prague where they will learn a full-length evening programme composed of 3 – 5 one-act choreographies at specified period of time. Please decide and return the application forms as soon as possible, by April 30, 2011 at the latest, so we are able to arrange the stay and schedule.
2. Organizer (Dance Center Prague) will provide for the following things of participating students:
  - accommodation in Prague during the whole stay concerning the project
  - accommodation of representative of each participating school during the premiere of the project, promotion of students and their schools in promotion materials, leaflets and during press meetings and other media occasions
  - trainings, rehabilitation and health care, using all hygienic equipment, administrative equipment of dance conservatoire during the whole stay in terms of our project
  - photo and video documentation from artistic performance in terms of the project
  - complex artistic and special rating report of the project
3. Schedule:
  - March - April 2011: definitive casting of the project – discussion and meetings with join conservatoire leaderships
  - Deadline: April 30th, 2011
  - August 21: welcome to Prague
  - August 22– September 3: workshop – according schedule
  - September 4: first nights in Prague – New stage of the National Theater Prague
  - after – domestic production with Ballet Prague Junior
  - January 6 – 13, 2012: International Dance Weeks 2012 (26. year)
    - presentation of the SDW 2011 programme with international cast
  - Next possibilities according production of the TCP and join conservatoires

4. For successful cooperation the partners should keep the following conditions:
  - to appoint a representative-coordinator of the join schools who will be in regular contact with organizers and who will get and give information that will be needed
  - a group of students who will be able to participate in the project to suitable extent (final 1st and 2nd cast of specific choreography will depend on the author but the dramaturgy will take care of honest use of quality artistic potential of all participating interprets)
  - selected students will have Curriculum Vitae in English, a civil photo (colour) 2 art photos (dance motifs + costumes, or a photo from a performance, with a partner etc) – the school will make a quality check, please
  - selected students will send personal data to the organiser: see the application form enclosed
  - selected students will have complete health insurance for stay in Czech Republic

5. Dramaturgy: artistic part – choosing of choreography and creative teams will be arranged by the organiser in terms of long-term dramaturgy plans and foreign contacts. Participating institutions can take part in this as stated below:
  - proposal of choreography of each country's choreographer who will suggest suitable work (and will send artistic theme, script, video promotion of chosen choreography - if exists - promotion materials including video of their previous work)
  - selection of a short choreography or its part from main repertoire of school which will be learnt by students – representatives of the school off the Prague workshops and it will be learnt independently in terms of SDW project

First night of “Summer Dance Workshop” project could have two parts:

- première choreographies of “SDW Company”
- extracts of current repertoire of each participating school danced by members of “SDW Company”
(première choreographies – made in terms of SDW project can be a subject of further agency work – staging at schools that will take part in the project)

Thank you for the attention you will dedicate to the project – all agency work will be run via the production of Dance Center Prague. The statutory representative and coordinator of the project is the Manager of Dance Center Prague Mr. Antonín Schneider (+420 603 51 88 58 – for the director of participating schools only)

I wish you “GOOD LUCK” for this school year and I look forward to cooperating and educating new Central European generation.
