

Summer dance workshop 2018

25th year since 1994

Dear colleagues,

I am sending you informations about another year of Summer dance workshop, where there will be put together the „summer art company“, consisting of top representatives of European art – dance education. Two – weeks workshop will bring a repertoire for next season. Program consisting of one-act choreographies will represent our ideas of artistic education and contemporary dance theatre evolution. In closing of workshop, there will be „the open general rehearsal videos and detailed evaluation of each participant. Participants can take chosen choreography to their own repertoire after agreement with production of TCP. We don't want use any formal restrictions – joining of the workshop depends just on level of skills of applicant respectively the nomination of the conservatory. We expect students of higher years with scenical practice and experiences. This workshop is also an opportunity for dance teachers, assistants of choreographers or producers of junior art activities to check conditions, requirements and limits in this attractive field of art education.

Project characteristics:

1. Place: Prague – TCP Conservatoire residence: Pod Žvahovem 463, 152 00 Praha 5

2. Schedule:

31 st May	closure of applications + casting
till 15 th June	informations + invitation for participants + dramaturgy of workshop
26 th August	presentation of participants in Prague
27 th August – 6 th September	workshop – practicing and studying of programme, stage rehearsal, (11 work days, about 80 hours)
7 th September	„General rehearsal“ – studio no. 1

- selection of a short choreography or its part from main repertoire of school which will be learnt by students – representatives of the school off the Prague workshops and it will be learnt independently in terms of SDW project

4. Casting:

Dance conservatoires may choose exceptionally high quality students – up to 2 girls and 2 boys older than 16 years old who are skilled in classical and contemporary dance and have scenical experiences in both areas including exceptional physical and mental condition and work spirit. After processing applications - and any consultations with registered partners - in March - June 2014 will be prepared the final roster of "summer" ensemble. Students with qualities stated above may also apply individually, but they should also ensure that consent and support of their schools for this project. During the first week of the workshop will artistic leadership of the workshop (all authors and editor) assign 1st and 2nd cast and all alternates of studied choreography.

For example: 258 candidates from 16 conservatoires of 11 countries participated the SDW in recent 10 years.

After a great experience from the previous years, TCP will enable an internship for chosen pedagogues from participating conservatoires who will be allowed to attend all trainings, stage tests etc. for free to verify the methodology and principles of artistic productions of this year's choreographic work.

5. Production:

TCP Prague will organize for chosen students:

- accomodation in Prague for the duration of the project (price about 120 CZK / 4,5 EUR a day)
- trainings and rehearsals of the program according to metodological and dramaturgical schedule for free
- presentation of students and conservatoires in promotional materials
- medical care, physiotherapist, masseur and rehabilitation program for free
- photo and video documentation of the program, a certificate of completion of action
- participation of representatives of the participating conservatories - inclusion in the VIP event log + 2 complimentary tickets to the premiere

6. Application – to deadline should be sent:

- accurately completed application form confirmed by the school (or even legal representative)
- 1 civilian photo and 2 photos of an artistic performance that best characterize the "equipment" of the candidate (duet also possible, etc.)
- at the begining of the workshop to prove health insurance for their stay in the Czech Republic
- contact to a responsible person at a participating conservatoire (phone, cell phone, e-mail), that will be in contact with the leadership of workshops throughout the project and will coordinate promotion of participating schools and students
